HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.Division 1 of Manchester, N. H., has a membership of 150.The ladies have a splendid auxiliary at Washington, Ind.A large class was initiated into the order last week at Milwaukee.The Indianapolis elections will be followed by a big initiation of new members on Sunday, December 18.The county officers expect that at least 10,000 members will march in the St. Patrick's day parade at Boston.Memphis Hibernians have planned for a very pleasant affair for next Thursday night, when they elect officers.It is interesting to note that Hon.
John Burke, who was recently re-elected Governor of North Dakota, is a member of the Ancient Order.Division 2 will hold its last meeting of the year next Friday night.
There will be something doing and President Ford wants all members to report.Irish folk dancing, for which cash prizes will be awarded, will be a leading feature of the "Irish night" to be held by St. Paul Hibernians next month.The regular quarterly initiation of the auxiliaries of Indianapolis will be held tomorrow at St. Joseph's Hall. A large class will receive the degrees.The interest manifested in New Hampshire bodes well for the success of the Ancient Order in that State. All the divisions are gaining in membership.County President Maurice Donnelly, of Indianapolis, was the principal speaker at a great gathering in St. Louis in memory of the Manchester martyrs.County President Howard declares the prospects bright for a large increase in membership in Ashland and Boyd county during the ensuing two years.Syracuse Hibernians are vieing with each other in the entertainment of members. Division 2 after its last meeting entertained those present with an Irish supper.Boston Hibernians have voted to parade on St. Patrick's day and have begun preparations for the event.
They will also have a banquet, with speakers representing the nation, State and city.Monday night Division 4 will meet at Bertrand Hall, and an interesting session is anticipated. A number of reports will be submitted and arrangements for the euchre series will be completed.The Ancient Order of Milwaukee secured the history of Ireland as a study three years ago in seven parochial schools, from which seven boys and seven girls will be selected for the Cudahy scholarships.The Standing Committee of the divisions at Ashland is a representative one, and includes such well known citizens as M. J. Ryan, Martin Holmes, William E. Bartell, Edward O. Kelly and George Nicholson.Through Prof. Michael G. Rohan, Chairman of the Irish History Committee, Patrick Cudahy, President of Cudahy Bros. Packing Company, has donated two scholarships for proficiency in Irish history, to be applicable to Marquette Academy and the academy or Catholic high school which may be selected for a period of four years annually.

BUYS MORE BONDS.

The Board of Supreme Officers of the Catholic Knights of America have made another investment of $65,000 in gilt-edged bonds out of the moneys accumulated for the reserve fund, which will soon exceed $1,000,000. The board has now on deposit with the Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis bonds aggregating a par value of $871,466.

HOLIDAY PUDDING.

One cup chopped suet, one cup mollasses, one cup sugar, one cup sour milk, one teaspoon soda dissolved in a little hot water, three cups flour, one pinch salt, one cup raisins chopped coarse, one cup each of chopped figs and walnuts makes a very rich pudding when added to batter. Also, for variety, a cupful of chopped citron may be used. Steam three hours.
Serves warm with vanilla or any preferred sauce. This pudding can be made several days before wanted and re-steamed and is as delicious as when first made. Can be re-steamed for several meals for small family. Steam in steamer in pan large enough to allow for pudding to rise.

REAL LADY.

To be a lady means rightly to be a gentlewoman who shows by her every word and action a sweet and gentle dignity, with a gracious charm of manner; a woman whose heart is pure and true, who is tender toward all suffering, who sympathizes with those in trouble and is ever ready to give that which costs her some effort and self-denial. A lady thinks no work derogatory, and no one is deemed too low to receive courtesy and kindness. She is pure and good in every detail of life, a true friend, and a "ministering angel" in sorrow and in sickness.

IMMACULATE MOTHER!

Oh, thou Immaculate Mother, Queen above, To thee we pray, to thee we send our love;
Thy feast day once again I'm blessed to see,
Oh, mother mild and humble, pray for me.(I wish to send my prayers to thee today,
That from the "land of life" I may not stray;
And grant that I may not from thy church roam,
And soon I'll gain my everlasting home.
J. Louis Walsh,
St. Xavier's College.

OLDEST PRELATES.

His Grace the Archbishop of Brisbane, Most Rev. Dr. Dunne, attained the age of seventy-nine years last month. He was born at Lismore, County Waterford, Ireland, and was ordained priest at the Irish College in Rome in 1855. He and Cardinal Moran are the oldest Bishops in Australasia.

APPOINTED ASSISTANT.

The Rev. Roman Roesper, of St.
Meinrad, has been appointed associate rector of St. Mary's church, New Albany. He has arrived in the city to enter upon the discharge of his duties. The Rev. William Solbertz, the rector of St. Mary's, has been without an assistant since he was appointed to the charge six months ago.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

St. Edward's Commandery, Knights of St. John, met Monday evening at St. Anthony's Hall and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Thomas Graf; Vice President, George Kruse; Recording Secretary, Fred Herz; Financial Secretary, L. W. Borntraeger; Treasurer, John J. Schul-ten; Sergeant-at-Arms, Adam Graf; Finance Committee, William Drees, Gus Wernert and Anthony Licht-feld. Military officers were elected as follows: Captain, Gus Wernert; First Lieutenant, Anthony Licht-feld; Second Lieutenant, Ulrich Thamelung; Third Lieutenant, Edward Graf.

FANCIES OF FASHION.

There is a decided vogue for all antique fashions.
Scarfs, muffs and sashes of the new Janus cloth are stunning.
Hats covered with suede or un-dressed kid are new and pretty.
Some of the latest round collars show more embroidery than lace.
Large brimmed hats covered with gold gauze and lace are striking.
Tailless ermine is much in demand on handsome gowns or hats of velvet.
The most striking feature of the present styles is the vogue for vivid, vigorous colors.Afternoon gowns are neither long nor short, and they are an even length all the way around.In evening gowns the sleeves are short indeed, and some dresses are practically sleeveless.The kimono sleeve has been so generally adopted that it is practically the only sleeve of the year.There has been a decided tendency of late to shorten the coats of suits and to enlarge their collars.The younger set still cling to the round collar which has fast threatened to enlarge into a cape.Black chiffon lined with white and trimmed with broad bands of ermine without tails forms a most fashionable waist.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.The death of the Right Rev. Monsignor Dean Staunton at Swinford is widely regretted.The Galway County Council has elected John Moran County Surveyor for the entire county.Recently a large consignment of apples from the Cloughjordan district of Tipperary were shipped to England.At a meeting of the Carlow Board of Guardians, Patrick Dooley, of Rossmore, was elected porter of the Carlow Workhouse. There were eight candidates.John Wilson, of Wheatthill, and Michael Jackson, of Tempo, were both unanimously co-opted members of the Enniskillen Rural District Council recently.The Roscommon Town Commissioners have offered to sell the postural authorities the site on which the old Market House stands as a site for a new post-office.Damage estimated at over $500 was caused by fire at the premises of Peter McGough in Newry. It occurred in the paper bag storeroom, and is covered by insurance.Dr. J. J. O'Mahoney, medical officer at Kealkill, has been appointed medical officer of the Bantry Workhouse and Dispensary district, in room of Dr. Thomas Popham, deceased.The death of Rev. James Fitzpatrick, of Drumreilly Lower, which occurred at his brother's residence at Bawnboy, County Cavan, was heard of with deep regret by a large circle of relatives and friends.At the meeting of the Committee of Management of the Killarney Lunatic Asylum, John J. Skinner, of Killarney, was unanimously elected engineer, fitter and plumber. There were nineteen applications.Three young boys, named Henry Lennon, Patrick Meehan and Patrick Walsh, Jr., were remanded on bail by a special court in Banbridge on a charge of placing the wheels of a bogie across the Great Northern line.Returning from work on the railway line near Tanderagee, Alexander McCullagh and Thomas Brown were knocked down by a train. McCullagh was instantly killed. Brown had an arm broken, as well as other injuries.A verdict of "found drowned" was returned at an inquest in Waterford touching the death of Frank Ryan, retired marine engineer, whose body was found in the Suir. There was no evidence to show how he got into the river.Three fishermen of Kilkee—Patrick Houlihan and Michael and John McNamara, the latter a Town Commissioner—were drowned off that port while mackerel fishing as the result of their small fishing boat being capsized in a squall.Much indignation has been caused in Sligo by the mutilation of the shop fronts of a number of the principal business establishments in the town. The mischievous work was carried out during the night and no clue to the perpetrators has been found.The death of Mrs. Ursula Stack has taken place at her residence, Knocknagore, County Cork. The deceased lady had attained the age of 103, and was able to read her newspaper up to a week before her death. She was a sister to the late Rev. Father O'Halloran, of Beaufort, County Kerry, and aunt of the Rev.
Father O'Halloran, of Castletown-bere.

ROYAL FRUIT CAKE.

This is a large recipe making three large loaves. Can be kept for a year or longer. Five cupfuls of flour, one and one-half cupfuls each of sugar and butter, one-half cupful of milk, one cupful of molasses, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls each of allspice and cloves, two tablespoonfuls of cinnamon, five eggs, one butter, two pounds of raisins, three pounds of currants, one and one-half pounds of citron; bake about one hour or longer in a slow oven.

TRY THIS.

Ask some one to choose any number on the clock and add it to the number directly opposite. This is to be done to himself, not loud. Then tell him to imagine these two numbers are joined by a line, and that another line is drawn at right angles to the first line so that a cross is formed. Tell the person to add together the two numbers at the ends of this second line—then to find the difference between their sum and the sum of the first two numbers. Then announce that you can tell the result. No matter what figure on the clock face has been first chosen. If the addition is correct, the result will be six. Try it.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

One of the first duties to her child is to spare no effort in her endeavors to provide him with a physique fitted to be the support and companion of his mind. There is no better equipment for the little one who must win his way in the world than perfect health. Children are
